Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill imposes certain requirements and restrictions concerning the use of credit information in the underwriting of property and casualty insurance. The bill excludes commercial lines of insurance from the requirements and restrictions. The bill makes a violation of the requirements and restrictions an unfair and deceptive act and practice in the business of insurance.

Effective Date: July 1, 2002.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues: (Revised) The bill makes a violation of the requirements for using credit scores in underwriting certain insurance policies an unfair and deceptive act and practice in the business of insurance. The insurer violates IC 27-4-1-4 if they willfully use the credit scoring methodology as a discriminatory tool. A violation of these requirements may result in the levying of civil penalties. Civil penalties will be deposited in the state General Fund. This bill excludes commercial lines of insurance from these requirements and restrictions.

The civil penalties set forth are: $25,000 for each act or violation, or $50,000 for each act or violation if the person knew or reasonably should have known that he was in violation of this chapter. The remediation efforts undertaken by the person will be used in determining the amount of the civil penalty. In addition, if the person knew or reasonably should have known that he was in violation of this chapter, the Commissioner may suspend the person's license or certificate of authority.

The total fiscal impact of this bill is not known.
